Litigation is never easy. Having a partner with the technical experience to support litigation activities can help parties resolve issues, often outside of the courtroom. Having a partner with experience in providing trusted and practical solutions to complex problems wins more cases. That's the value of having a partner like LTE.

LTE can provide the following services:

- Legal support and research
- Expert testimony
- Deposition support
- Strategic planning
- Expert opinion reports
- Data validation
- Third Party oversight
